AIR NOT FIT TO BREATHE

EXCLUSIVE

By Steve Neale

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

TOXIC pollution in east London is more than twice the legal limit, according to new figures released.

Clean Air in London received the information from Defra after mounting a legal challenge against Mayor Boris Jonson's refusal to release the data.

The data shows deadly nitrogen dioxide gases from diesel engines in Redbridge and Waltham Forest was twice the legal limit of 40 micro grams per cubic metre in 2012, and 50 per cent higher than is legal in Barking and Dagenham.

Simon Birkett, director of Clean Air in London, said: "It's outrageous the mayor is hiding details about toxic fumes and that it has taken six months to force the government to release anything about them.

"The mayor must end his love affair with carcinogenic diesel exhaust and ban it from the most polluted places as coal burning was banned so successfully 60 years ago.

"Air pollution levels at these locations are twice the legal limits and World Health Organisation guidelines. Diesel exhaust is almost certainly the main local source of this air pollution."

Among the worst areas were Walthamstow Avenue, with 78mg of NO2 and Kingfisher Avenue, in Redbridge at 81mg. The most polluted part of Barking and Dagenham was Ripple Road at 64 mg, more than 50 per cent above the legal limit.

Mr Birkett added: "Boris misleads people by talking about reductions in computer modelled emissions. Actual air pollution concentrations, used for setting health and legal limits, are the real test.

"Clean Air in London urges the mayor to publish estimated actual concentrations of NO2, PM2.5 and PM10 at each Air Quality Focus Area within two months after each calendar year end so Londoners can assess his progress."

The EU has already warned the UK government that it aims to issue heavy fines if pollution is not controlled in the capital.

Campaigners believe the mayor is looking to introduce technology to make vehicles switch to electric mode or other measures to reduce air pollution near monitors to avoid legal breaches. Although this would help the UK meet its legal requirements it would not impact significantly on the thousands of fatalities caused by pollution each year. Clean Air in London used barristers Gerry Facenna and Julianne Morrison of Monckton Chambers to get access to the previously secret information. The legal team used powerful European access to environmental information laws despite obstruction by Defra.

Clean Air London asked Defra for data on air pollutants at 187 air testing locations on February 26, 2014. The request was originally refused, but released after the legal team called for an internal review of Defra's refusal decision on March 23.

Defra missed the two month statutory deadline to complete the internal review and failed to respond until July 22, 2014.

Defra subsequently apologised for this failing.

Defra said that modelled air pollution concentrations at 47 of the 187 locations may not be representative of levels at the Air Quality Focus Area because equipment is more than 50 metres from it.

The Yellow Advertiser contacted the mayor's office at the time of going to press, but staff said they could not comment at such short notice.

Hey council, leave that parking scheme alone!

By Matthew Stanton

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

MORE than 400 people have signed a petition calling on council chiefs to leave a parking voucher scheme alone.

Neighbourhood Watch coordinators operating off Station Road, Chingford, set up the campaign after hearing concerns from residents at a panel meeting that vouchers were being 'phased out'.

The petition is available to sign in a number of businesses in Station Road, many of whom have been campaigning against Waltham Forest Council's plans to scrap the vouchers and the introduction of a controversial phone parking system.

Neighbourhood watch co-ordinator John Easey, of Mornington Road, said: "The vouchers have been continuing ever since the phone parking scheme was implemented but we are worried it will be phased out completely."

"I have walked down the streets I operate in (Arabia Close, Buxton Road and Mornington Road) and I have had 100 per cent support. There is one clear message, these vouchers need to stay permanently."

"Not everyone has a mobile phone. Is it acceptable to ask someone to type in their credit card details into a mobile phone in the middle of the high street in the pouring rain? In our opinion, it is unacceptable and the vouchers provide another option."

In November last year, all councilors unanimously voted in favour of a new 30-minute free parking allocation, however, Waltham Forest Council has made no changes.

Campaigner Adam Osen has also been gathering signatures for the campaign. He said: "The signs saying that vouchers are available have been removed. Our concern is that the vouchers will just stop without any kind of consultation."

"There was no consultation over phone parking and I very much doubt that there will be over the future of the vouchers, which would be totally undemocratic."

"I have been asking for figures on the revenue made by both the phone and vouchers schemes but my enquires fall on deaf ears."

The petition is available in shops that include The Bookshop North Chingford, Almars, Truly Scrumptious, Needful Things, Glam and The Wine Factor.

Councillor Clyde Loakes, Waltham Forest Council's cabinet member for environment said: "We will be looking to see whether current parking provision supports the economy of our town centres."

"There are no current proposals to stop selling parking vouchers. Signs were replaced in May 2013 when the new 15 minutes of free parking provision came into force and the alternative ways of paying were introduced, but no signs have been removed more recently."

"The proposal for an increase in the duration of time allowed for free parking will be reviewed later this year."

Digging up the dog track

By Matthew Stanton

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

EXCAVATION work has started on the grounds of Walthamstow Greyhound Stadium to discover the remains of a former medieval manor house.

Archaeologists from Archaeology South East and University College London have been digging up land off Walthamstow Avenue, Chingford, which was the former site of Salisbury Hall.

Experts have been taking residents on free tours of the work site, showing people the foundations of the 14th century building.

Andy Leonard, project manager from Archaeology South-East, believes some pottery found at the site could date back thousands of years.

He said: "The hall has its origins in the 14th century was probably a timber framed structure built on chalk and ragstone foundations.

"We have been excavating a large rubbish pit near the hall itself which is full of broken tile and pottery which probably comes from this phase of building.

"The archaeological excavation has identified the medieval incarnation of the hall as well as the later rebuild. In addition, we also have a series of ancillary structures of 17th century date which probably represent barns and outhouses."

The manor house, known as Salisbury Hall, was acquired by the Salisbury family in the early 14th century in 1322 and belonged to the Tyrwhitt family until the late 16th century before it fell into the hands of Henry VIII and later Queen Elizabeth I.

The hall has was a timber-framed structure, measuring 50 feet long and 30 feet wide, and was built on chalk and ragstone foundations.

The house was fire damaged in the 16th century and was subsequently rebuilt in the middle of that century, with two-storey projecting gable porches and a tiled roof in two ridges.

A large rubbish pit near the hall was found to have broken tiles and pottery, which presumably dates back to the same period.

Walthamstow Greyhound Stadium's car park was then built on the site and is to be replaced by a new car showroom.

Historian Mary Dunhill, who wrote a book based on Salisbury Hall called 'A History of Highams Park and Hale End', said: "The real of treasure of Chapel End is revealed by archaeologists.

"A secret since the 1950s has been revealed now as a habitation from the Bronze Age. My book took 10 years to assemble because interviewing people who knew the history of Salisbury Hall and researching the building and its place in our borough took much time, dedication and care."

McLaren tees up a power drive

By Mike Torpey

THE 18th hole at California's picturesque Pebble Beach golf course is about to witness a drive like never before.

But it won't be Rory McIlroy or Tiger Woods ripping up the famous fairway.

Instead the cheers will be for McLaren Special Operations and the MSO 650S Spider and fire-breathing P1 hypercar.

The bespoke MSO division was launched in 2011 and offers a full personalisation service for McLaren owners.

And commissioned by a North American customer, the P1 to be shown for the first time at the Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance features a host of bespoke options. This unique example of the 916PS, 217mph flyer has been modified to mark it out from the other 170 examples which have been built to date.

At the front, silver finishing to the aluminium radiator grilles sit below the carbon fibre bumper while above, a McLaren Orange speedmark adorns the bonnet.

The bodywork is finished in exclusive Stirling Grey, with the metallic finish complemented by gloss carbon fibre and orange accents.

Along the profile of the car, brake callipers finished in the heritage colour are mounted behind body-coloured alloy wheels.

The car's rear is enhanced further by 24 carat gold heat shields around the engine bay and exhaust.

The material was originally used on the McLaren F1 of the 1990s and still used today on company's F1 cars, due to its reflective and heat resistance qualities.

MSO is also showcasing a one-off version of the 650S Spider, based on the exclusive MSO 650S which made its debut last month at the Goodwood Festival of Speed.

It is one of just 50 examples with unique styling upgrades, including extensive satin-finished carbon fibre, while the exterior has been finished in Cerulean Blue, a paint which includes a heavy metallic flake.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;

(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or

(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. ## O'S LOSE OPENER TO NEWCOMERS

Leyton Orient

Leyton Orient 1-2
Chesterfield

Rowland Lyons reporting from the Matchroom Stadium

LEYTON Orient suffered opening day woe, as the newly-promoted Spireites overturned the form books with a shock win on Saturday.

Romuald Boco and Eoin Doyle strikes got last season's League Two champion's noses in front, although new signing Darius Henderson's late strike only proved to be a consolation.

Boss Russell Slade, gave debuts to Adam Legdzins, Shane Lowry and Bradley Pritchard.

And, it was Legdzins who was picking the ball out of the net after only seven minutes when Boco gave the visitors the dream start with a sweet volley after a Mathieu Baudry deflection had left Lowry in no-mans land.

The lively Spireites nearly doubled their lead on 15 minutes when the nervous O's lost possession and a clean-through Eoin Doyle should have scored, but hit the outside of a grateful Legdzins' post.

Orient hit back and Tommy Lee did well to deny David Mooney, Dean Cox and Kevin Lisbie in

The northerners' goal then began to enjoy a charmed life with Pritchard and Mooney heading wide and despite Lee dropping Nathan Clarke's 38th minute cross, Lisbie was unable to profit from two yards out.

But, with the wind still in their sails from Boco's opener, the Spireites wasted another great chance when skipper Ian Evatt headed Roberts' 48th minute set-piece over from inside the O's six-yard box.

The O's early season lethargy almost cost them six minutes later when Roberts beat Clarke too easily and Legdzins bailed out his skipper with a fine point-blank block from Doyle.

Despite a 59th-minute double-substitution, with the O's Jobi McAnuff and Jay Simpson entering the fray, they were to make little impact and it was Doyle who wasted another chance by heading Tendayi Darikwa's header straight at Legdzins.

Orient's day nearly went from bad to worse when skipper Clarke was lucky to stay on the pitch when he only received a yellow card for blatant handball, with man-of-the-match Roberts clean through.

Doyle finally did get his goal ten minutes from time by latching on to a Roberts' through ball and lobbed a stranded Legdzins.

Sub, Henderson pulled one back for the O's on 83 minutes, but it was too little, too late, leaving Slade admitting: "We're all disappointed - it's not the start you want to get off to and you want to collect some points as early as you possibly can.

"I didn't think there was an awful lot in the game. We had chances to get back in the game - although I thought we were very poor for the first goal.

"Henderson made an impact coming on late in the game - when I thought we might get something. But, the goals [we conceded] were characteristic of our defending. It wasn't a bad performance - I just feel we need to improve in every area."

Chesterfield assistant boss, Leam Richardson, added: "We were expecting a good game here today and I think any neutrals here would have been impressed. We adapted well, because Leyton Orient are a good side and keep the ball well - but we did come here and try to win the game.

"I am happy we got our two goals and created chances in our first game of the season."

Skipper Clarke admitted: "I am disappointed. We wanted to get off to a good start.

"There was a bit of confusion in our box [for their first goal] and it gave them something to hang on to.

"And, we can't keep looking back on last season, as this now a fresh start and a new challenge."

HOW THEY LINED UP

Orient edges through on penalties

Plymouth Argyle 3
Leyton Orient 3
(Orient won 6-5 on penalties)

By Rowland Lyons at Home Park

Russell Slade's Leyton Orient edged through to the next round of the League Cup after sudden death penalties at the League Two Pilgrims on Tuesday night.

Having thrown away a two-goal lead with Dean Cox and Mathieu Baudry on target, a Rueben Reid double got Argyle back on level terms. Romain Vincelot then put the O's ahead in extra-time, only for Carl McHugh to once again square the tie. Keeper Gary Woods then proved to be the O's hero by saving two penalties.

Slade made six changes from last Saturday's Chesterfield reverse and gave new signings Woods, Jobi McAnuff and Jay Simpson starts.

Despite losing Shaun Batt to injury early on, Cox made an instant impact stepping off the bench and fired home a stunning 13th minute drive that was still rising as it sailed past Luke McCormick.

Simpson should have doubled the east Londoners' lead minutes later, but taking advantage of defensive indecision, his toe-poke lacked conviction.

Argyle rarely threatened, before a 38th minute McAnuff cross field run and pass found Cox, whose cross was nodded emphatically home by Baudry.

Seconds after David Mooney had wasted an excellent chance, the O's switched off at the back and from Ollie Norburn's mis-kick, Reid reduced the deficit with a deflected effort that gave Woods no chance.

Visibly lifted by their stoppage time goal, Reid should have levelled ten minutes into the second period, but Woods stood tall and made a good block. From the rebound Baudry did well to deny Josh Banton.

Plymouth's recovery was seemingly complete on 64 minutes when Reid wrestled skipper Nathan Clarke off the ball from Curtis Nelson's lofted pass and fired home under the diving Woods.

Having looked so confident before the break, the O's were now on the rack and almost fell behind ten minutes later when Clarke lost possession and Lewis Alessandra rattled Woods's bar with a spectacular curler, before finding himself totally unmarked and just hitting an effort over from 15 yards.

On what was a rare Orient attack, Mooney wasted another excellent chance, but shot straight at the underworked McCormick, after sub, Romain Vincelot - on for the injured Lloyd James - had opened up the Argyle defence. Predictably, the tie went to extra-time and Argyle continued to enjoy the upper hand with Woods doing well to deny Reid and Norburn.

At the end of the first period of extra-time - and arguably against the run of play - Vincelot headed the O's back in front from a pinpoint Cox centre.

But, Plymouth weren't finished and McHugh levelled for the second time courtesy of a wicked deflection off the unfortunate Elliot Omozusi, before Woods pulled off a stunning save to deny subs, River Allen and Marvin Morgan, before the game went to penalties.

Both sides missed one of their allotted kicks, but once Baudry had hit the O's sixth spot kick, Woods capped a fine debut saving McHugh's effort.

A relieved Slade admitted: "I am hoping to use this [win] as a springboard to move forward. The fact we have won a penalty shootout - in a cup competition - and having been pegged back - I think it might kick-start us. To win in any shape or form is a positive."

Argyle boss, John Sheridan, added: "We played well against a good League One team and we matched them in all areas. Once we got back in the game, I wanted to up the tempo. Their keeper made some unbelievable saves - but penalties are a bit of a farce at times - but he made a great save on to the bar. Orient are a good team - but we've got to learn from tonight."

Non-league round-up

Busy Blues off to a flyer

Non-league round up by Brian Jeeves

RYMAN Premier League Billericay Town capped a decent week's work with a 2-0 success over local rivals Grays Athletic at New Lodge.

Prior to the game, manager Craig Edwards announced the exciting signings of former West Ham United man Frazer Shaw and East Thurrock United skipper Steve Sheeham. Watched by a bumper crowd of 420, Ryan Scott fired Town ahead, then ex-Grays striker Chris Benjamin grabbed the second on what was his debut.

Elsewhere, it was a successful opening day for Canvey Island who overcame Bognor Regis Town by 3-1 thanks to a brace from Jay Curran and another from John Sands.

East Thurrock United were also off to a good start. A single goal from Lewis Smith earning the Rocks the points against AFC Hornchurch while Witham Town and Lewes fought out a 1-1 draw.

In the Ryman North there was a shock for Aveley as a goal in each half from James Peagram earned visitors Waltham Forest a 2-0 win and there was a double-barrel blast from Harry Cook to give Tilbury the points and a 2-1 triumph against new boys Brightlingsea Regent.

It was a tough start for Great Wakering Rovers. Last season's Essex Senior League champions travelled to Needham Market and despite a decent display it was the home side who grabbed the honours thanks to a late goal from Luke Ingram.

Thurrock impressively won 3-0 at Brentwood Town and Romford went one better, dispatching Burnham Ramblers 4-0.

But it was bad news for the regions other Ryman North teams. Ricky Spriggs found the net for Heybridge Swifts but they went down 3-1 at Soham Town Rangers. Calvin Paku was on target for Barkingside who lost by the odd goal in three at Thamesmead Town, and Redbridge slumped to a 3-1 home defeat against much fancied Harlow Town.

There were mixed results for our Conference clubs. In the Premier Division, Braintree Town went down 1-0 to an early Chris Holroyd goal at Macclesfield Town. And there was a disappointing defeat for Chelmsford City who went down by the same score line to Gosport Borough, Justin Bennett's penalty proving to be the decisive moment.

But it was much better news for Concord Rangers who thumped Bath City at the Aspect Arena thanks to goals from Steve Cawley and second half penalties from Danny Glozier and Jordan Chiedoie.
